Reading- Most of the reading for the rest of the year will come from science and social studies. We will build our vocabulary, comprehension, and reasoning skills up to the end of the year.

(3rn2.1, 3rn2.2, 3rn3.1, 3.rv2.4, 3.rv2.5)

We will reading from the "Scholastic News" magazines, "Geo Spins", and "Science Spins". .

Assessment: daily activities

English/Writing Students will continue to work on letter writing. They will correctly use a friendly letter format and write letters for different purposes. We will each mail some letters. Students will be tested over their addresses on both remaining Fridays, using the format they were given from me. 3s1, 3w6, 3w3.3, 3w4. Assessment: Grades may come from quizzes and practice pages.

Math - We are completing some lessons in Unit 17: Step Up to Grade 4. We are working with place value, larger number multiplication, and fractions. We will practice computation and measurement. Just finishing up with a little bit of everything and anything. Assessment: Grades might come from daily assignments over previously learned standards.

Computation: 3c1 Students will work mixed problems this week with some addition, subtraction, multiplication and division. 4ns1, 4c2, 4c4

Social Studies/ Science - (3.ESS.3, 3.3 Geography, 3.LS.1-4) Students are moving on to some geography and maps for Social Studies. We will finish the year off with plants. Students are learning the basic needs of plants to grow, develop, and reproduce. Assessment: Pearson lesson quizzes, activities, and handouts
